ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

On separate sheets, respond to the following questions.

1. Describe what it means to be a Christian and substantiate your own faith in Jesus Christ.
2. Do you agree with LCA’s Statement of Faith (<http://www.logosfallon.com/statementfaith.php>).
 Yes No Initial: _____
3. LCA does not dogmatically teach theological issues that are not explicitly address in LCA’s Statement of Faith. (E.G.: Assurance of salvation, eternal security, the availability of sign gifts today, the means of water baptism, believers requesting the intercession of deceased saints, etc.) Do you believe the LCA Statement of Faith addresses all of the “essential” elements of the Christian faith?
4. Express your thoughts on discipline and classroom management techniques.
5. Read The Lost Tools of Learning by Beverly Sayers (<http://www.bgt.org/test/sayers.html>) and/or Recovering the Lost Tools of Learning by Doug Wilson (ISBN: 0891075836.) Copies of each are available from the LCA office. Comment on the merits and/or deficiencies of classical education.

ⁱ LCA seeks mature Christians as faculty, staff, and board members. Moral strength and adherence to the teachings of Jesus Christ is a necessary requirement of employment. In I Timothy 3:15 and Matthew 5:32, God defines marital status as a measurement of spiritual maturity.

ⁱⁱ LCA seeks mature Christians as faculty, staff, and board members. Attendance to, and participation in, corporate worship services are an important indicator of spiritual maturity. Hebrews 10:25 admonishes Christians to worship together. Church affiliation and regular attendance is a requirement for employment.
